

This in regards to the LPFM service taking priority over current FM translator service. I enjoy K-Love Radio because it provides wholesome entertainment without filth and violence. This would leave many listeners without a good radio station to listen to. I believe this would impact our community immensely.